

UTQAP Major Modification Protocol

Applies to significant changes to requirements of existing programs or learning outcomes; creation of a major/specialist where another of the same designation already exists, of a stream within existing undergraduate program, of a Combined program, of fields or concentrations within existing graduate programs, and of new minors where they constitute a completely new area of study (ie. Freestanding minors)

Development

Sign-off

Appraisal

Governance

Oversight